MONEY TO LOAN!

We are negotiating Loans on Farms at a rate of 5 per cent (semi or annual) interest with a reasonable commission. Land must not be bluffy or to near the Missouri River. The Prudential is the only Eastern Company making such favorable rates. Better see us at once if in need of a loan. It takes time for these loans and interest does not begin until loan is wanted. Respectfully,

Oak Grove.

—Frank Stout shipped out a car of cattle and hogs, this week.

—Rev. Felt spent the day Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Esia Banks, of the Oak Grove district.

—Rev. Felt spent the day Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Cooksey, of the Oak Grove district.

—Frank Stout has eleven head of fine young mules. We see where he is in the right, for there is good money in good, young mules.

—Misses Minnie and Goldie Stout, Ethel Farley and Hazel Womack are progressing nicely in their studies in the Oregon high school.

—Mrs. John Fancher spent most of last week visiting at the home of her nephew, Clint Kelley and wife, of the Highland neighborhood.

—Several of the young people, of the Oak Grove district, have been present at the Forbes church during the revival meeting Rev. Felt has been holding there the past week.

—Mr. McLeese, who has been living the past few months in one of Mr. Frank Stout's houses, sold a load of his furniture last week, and Mr. Sipes made the delivery of the furniture Saturday to the Wilson farm.

—Rev. Felt was in the Oak Grove neighborhood, Thursday, spending most of the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rankin. He also made a visit in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raines. X.

—Probate Court will hold its regular February term, beginning Monday, February 9. It has a very large docket.

Burr Oak.

—How's this for January?
—H. A. Bowles and family spent Sunday at the C. E. Moser home.

—Perry and Irene Stone are very ill at this writing with pneumonia.

—George Cotten purchased a span of young mules, one day, last week.

—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Eads has been quite ill for some time.

—J. L. Anno and sons spent Friday at the school house, repairing the pump.

—We are sorry to learn that Bennett Hood is in very poor health at this writing.

—Joseph Stone and family spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stone.

—Little Alameda Culp has been quite ill for some time, with an attack of typhoid fever.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moser have been visiting with relatives in Oregon for the last few days.

—Quite a few of our people attended the Fitzmaurice sale last Thursday. Every thing is said to have brought its face value.

—Sol Anno was asked the other day how many fish he caught last Thursday. He said, "I barely caught fish." How many did he catch?

—Mr. "Boss" Keck and wife woke up Tuesday morning to find their five months old baby wrapped in the throes of death. Cause not known.

—Another of those big birthday dinners was given for Jake Dively on January 8th. There were thirty-eight friends and relatives present to partake of the dinner with him.

—Jim Sinclair met with quite a painful accident, a few days ago, while cleaning out his well. A loose rock in the wall fell down upon him, cutting quite a gash in his head.

—We understand that Mr. Kern is in receipt of a letter, stating that Mr. Charlie Holt, who left here some time ago for his home in Arkansas, has reached his destination safe and sound.

—Mr. Willie Hopper and wife, accompanied by Mr. H.'s mother, are on a visit at Ness City, Kan. Mr. Hopper and family will return in a few days, but his mother will remain a few months with her children, while live there.

—The many friends and old school chums of Clarence Wiseman, formerly of this vicinity, but now of Peetz, Colo., are pleased to hear of the announcement of his marriage on the 5th inst. to Miss Katherine Ancaus of that place.

—There has been quite a bit of sickness. Geo. Hopper has had quite a sick child, but is some better. Joseph Hopper, who has been down with pneumonia, is able to be up some. We understand Miss Yvonne Blachly is threatened with pneumonia.

—Mrs. George Cotten gave a surprise birthday dinner for her husband, last Saturday. George was certainly surprised, too. Those present were: Ed. J. L., and S. W. Anno and families; J. M. Blachly and family; Ray and Trevor Anno; Ed. Cotten; Tom and Eva Stone; Lev Noland; Daisy and May Murray; Bertha Morris and Mrs. Mary Cotten. Eeo.

Craig.

—The Craig skating rink is in full operation.

—Mrs. James Redmond was taken to St. Joseph, a few days ago, to have an operation performed for appendicitis, but is in such a weakened condition that she has never been able to undergo an operation, but as she is young, it is quite likely she will soon be able.

—We are sorry to report the death of Uncle Asa Sharp, at Kansas City, on last Saturday night. Uncle Asa had gone there to have an operation performed for kidney trouble, but never had the necessary strength to stand an operation after he got there. He was one of the old citizens and had lived here all his life.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. McCoy have gone to Florida to spend the balance of the winter, also Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McCown, which leads us to inquire: Why any one wants to leave Old Holt to seek a milder climate?

—Speaking of winters we are ready to "take off our hat" and make our most respectful bow to the winter that is holding "the boards" at the present writing. So long as we are entitled to a vote we will cast it for a continuance of winters just like this.
